The government has expended three hundred thousand dollars to convict the Star-routers, but that will not be regreited if it only be successful.

His Holiness, the Pope, is complaining of a great falling off in the Peter's Pence collections and calls upon the faithful to increase their donations.

There is a volume and a force and flow to the Tilden-Hendricks boom the that bar'l cannot have given it. Evidently the people are behind it.

As the weather grows warmer so does the campaign in Indiana and Ohio. Many an aspiring statesman is building his hopes on the result of the laiter.

Prossia, Austria and Italy are drawing closer and closer together in the bond of political unity, thereby threatening the equilibrium of the balance of Europe.

The rusiling Sedalia Democrat washed its face real clean and donned its new costume, Wednesday of last week and was as sweet and fresh as a bursting rosebud. It is deserving of all

Tue national debt was reduced by less than five millions last mouth. This public obligation is taking on itself a great likeness to the poor-a burden we a'w. ys have and will continue to have with us.

In the matter of building a court house our county court can liken itself to Mahomed, the prophet of old. If the mountain (the people) will not come to Mahomet, Mahomet (the court) must go to the mountain.

If the young lady who always screams at the shortest possible provocation, or in fact for no provocat'on at all, will take to heart the awfal lesson of the Brooklyn bridge disasier she will be very likely to quit her monkeying.

Our citizens, who are able, and there are many such, ought to lend a willing and liberal hand to the establishment of a glass manufactory in our midst. Such an enterprise, if properly conducted, would bring us greater prosperity than we dream of.

Parnell is writing a proclamation to the Irish by which he will commit the agitaiors unequivocally to Ireland's ab o'mie independence. Thus is the wind again taken out of all efforts and hopes for the amelioration of that unfortunate country's deplorable conditiou.

To those who have a peep behind the curtain the course of the Herald on the new court house is most amusing. The order made by the court for the building of a new court house was-offered by Judge Huck, who was thereto principally urged by Joseph A. Ernst, the alleged editor of the Herald, the support of the scheme by that paper being promised, so we unders and. But now see how the best laid plan of mice an' men aft gang elec. The real editor down the road hada's been properly fixed and a certo'n M. D. got a hold of him and fixcd h'm the other way before he could so be. Thus the paper couldn't be brought up to the scratch, which was (noi) good for Joe.

That brilliant and dashing writer, Maj. John N. Edwards, is now editor of the St. Joseph Gazette. We consider the Major the Murat of Missouri iournalism.

Two whole issues have passed and the Herald has said nothing in abuse of us; but then it has turned over the least no continued warm weather duruse of its columns to an individual. who is perhaps better qualified for the delectable pastime for the reason that he is a frequent attemmer of bribery and a notorious suborner of perjury.

> Appropriating an idea from the New Madrid Record, we propound to the Cash-Book the query Why should the Governor in making his appointments any more disregard the politics of his appointees than the people in voting disregard the politics of he candidate for Governor? Don't you know that it is a mighty poor rule that wont work both ways?

> A little more than half a year ago we said Mahone was fast looing his hold on Virginia and the elections held in that state last work indicate pretty clearly that his power over her has now about faded away nitogether. This is the view that the administration at Washington is taking and it is hanting a plan to cut lose from the once great Readjuster and his waging fortunes. He has about served his purpose and his allies can no longer use him to their own advantage.

It is the wild-cat partismism of such country sheets as the Sie, Genevieve Fair Play that does about as inten as nything else to Democracy. - Cash-limb.

Possibly, so; but it is just such heresh policy and inordinate love for the loves and fishes, individually, of backwoods posters like yourself that disorganize the party and makes it sore airaid, dodging and shuffing about. instead of seeking to meet the fire in an open field and a fair fight.
